✔ Chair: Yonida Koukio, Associate, Oziel Law

17.05 Reversing Rural Population Decline in Greece:
Innovative Solutions for Sustainable Communities

One of the greatest long-term challenges facing Greece is the accelerating depopulation of its rural communities. Declining birth rates, an aging population, and the migration of young people to urban centres and abroad threaten the economic viability, cultural heritage, food security, and social cohesion of large parts of the country.
This discussion explores the economic consequences of rural depopulation, strategies to encourage young entrepreneurs and families to remain in or return to rural Greece, and how the Greek diaspora can contribute through investment, philanthropy, mentorship, and advocacy.

✔ Effie Lazaridou, CEO, New Agriculture New Generation
✔ Jackie Mirkopoulos, Founder & Principle Consultant, Seven Neighbours; Co-Founder, Ancestors of Tomorrow
